

TOLBOOTH

Recording Studio Info & Spec

Tolbooth's Recording Studio is comprised of a 22 sq.m Live Room and adjacent control room, situated in what used to be the Tolbooth's Cellar. The fully sound-proofed facility comes with a high end recording console and a full range of microphones and backline.

The studio is highly flexible and can be utilised for live band recordings, multi-tracked recordings, voice-over work, film soundtracks, mastering and sound effects creation. Our full equipment list is detailed below.

Studio:

Carillon audio PC
Steinberg Cubase 6.5
Native Instruments Battery 3 drum sampler
Mackie D8B digital mixing console
3 X Steinberg MR816x - 8 channel audio interface
Antares Autotune

Instruments:

Pearl export drum kit
Yamaha Motif Rack XS
Roland RD-300GX digital stage piano
Clavia Nord Lead 3 synthesizer

Amps:

Ampeg SVT 450 bass head and cab
Fender twin
Hayden Mofo 30 watt mini valve head/cab
Lab series L3
Marshall MG250DFX Combo
Marshall MG100DFX Combo

Mics:

Neumann U87a
Rode Classic II
Matched Pair AKG 414XLS
2X matched pairs of Rode NT5
2X Rode NT1
2X Rode NT2
3 X Sennheiser e604 dynamic drum mics
Sure beta 52a kick drum mic
AKG C451B
Sm57s and 58s

Outboard:

Tl audio 5001 4 channel valve mic preamp
Art Pro VLA II Stereo optical compressor

The recording studio is available for £23.80 per hour, which includes room hire, engineer & VAT.

The studio can also be linked to the auditorium for larger recordings, for more details.

For further information or to make a booking, please contact:
Kenny Bates // batesk@stirling.gov.uk // 01786 274 002